

THE LATE ROBINSON S. BROWN JR COLLECTION (Part II - Middlesex)

In accordance with DNW house style, this collection has been catalogued by location rather than by denomination as in Dalton and Hamer; in this way pieces relative to each other and specific to a particular locality are easier to find. Tokens issued by named individuals are listed alphabetically, preceding those struck by manufacturers for specious gain. The opportunity has been taken to record the weight and die-axis of each piece, information which might not only help pinpoint pieces from the collection in future years should original tickets and envelopes be discarded, but is also increasingly relevant to those who study the series in depth.

This portion of the collection includes a significant number of pieces of a medalllic nature, grouped under 'Middlesex' by Dalton and Hamer perhaps, as David Dykes has postulated, because of pressure from their publishers. Largely the work of the manufacturers of the tokens, it was perhaps for this reason that they were deemed worthy of publication by the contemporary authors of the time, in particular James Conder and Charles Pye, in whose footsteps James Atkins, Richard Dalton and Samuel Hamer have trod. Devotees of D & H have continued to pursue them, as indeed did many of those early collectors, but because they are not tokens per se they have been separated in this catalogue from the main group of London-based issues.

The lot number sequence follows on from Part I (DNW, 7 October 2009). For more information on individual issues and issuers, see the Appendix at the back of the catalogue.

Carmarthenshire

- 894 Carmarthen, John Morgan, a trial striking from the unfinished dies for a Halfpenny on a blank intended for a John Wilkinson issue, view of interior of ironworks, inverted v for a in HALFPENNY, rev. man at forge, inverted v for a in MORGAN, edge WILLEY SNEDSHILL BERSHAM BRADLEY, 11.43g/12h (dies as DH 7 but in earlier unfinished state, edge not listed). Fine, of the highest rarity £200-300

This most interesting piece is, in all probability, the same specimen which was once in the W.J. Davis Collection (Glendining Auction, 10-11 June 1920, lot 78); the cataloguer knows of no other. Apart from the spelling errors, much detail is missing in the design on both sides and some of the letters are incomplete (L, F and P in HALFPENNY) or defective (D and R in the outer legends)

- 895 Carmarthen, John Morgan, Halfpenny, 12.36g/5h (DH 7); PEMBROKESHIRE, St David's, Lutwyche's Farthing, 1793, 2.75g/12h (DH 1) [2]. First about extremely fine with original colour, second very fine, but both weakly struck £40-50

Comfort only describes one engraved coin commemorating Earl Howe's victory over the French fleet on 1 June 1794. HMS Queen, a 98-gun second rate of 1,876 tons, was launched at Woolwich in 1769. The vessel took part in the relief of Gibraltar in 1782-3 and, as the flagship of Admiral Alan Gardner (see his election token, lot 540), she led the van in the engagements that led up to the battle of 1 June 1794, closing with the Jemappes, a French man-of-war, and in the battle that followed disabled her, forcing the Jemappes to strike her flag in token of surrender. However, before the Jemappes could be taken as a prize, a full squadron of the French fleet swept down upon Queen fore and aft. Surrounded by the French men-of-war she was exposed to fierce fire from all quarters. Her captain, John Hutt, fell mortally wounded upon her quarterdeck and her first officer, Mr Mitchell, and 36 seamen also died while 67 seamen lay wounded on her decks. Disdaining the enemy's summons to surrender, the survivors fought back gallantly until finally Lord Howe's squadron came to the assistance of the Queen and drove off her attackers, although the vessel was seriously damaged. Sold with a transcript of a letter from Jno. Wilkinson, steward to the ward room on Queen, written from Spithead in July 1794, in which he describes the action, as well as further background information on the life of the ship, which was broken up in April 1821
